Basic notes:

He worked as a Master Mariner and Ship-owner in Whitby, Yorkshire. Miscellaneous: Whitby MM (Monthly Meeting). Joseph Foster in his The County Families of Yorkshire (1874), gives William Gaskin's parents as being William and Hannah. That is to say William Gaskin (1680-1755) and Hannah Scarth (1684-1753). William their son was born at Whitby 8 July 1719.

Another source states that William Gaskin, husband of Ann Chapman, was in fact the son of Joseph Gaskin (1689-1762), (younger brother to William Gaskin (1680-1755)), by his wife Ann Vaughan. This William was born 17th September 1722.

There appears to be a record giving a date for the marriage of William and Ann and that is the 28th October 1748 and cites the event occurring at Borthwick, York. This surely is wrong and merely means that the record is secured at the Borthwick Institute for Archives at the University of York. They were both Friends, they were both from Whitby and that, no doubt is where they married, under the aegis of Whitby MM (Monthly Meeting).

What is peculiar, is that the record gives ages for William and Ann as 23 and 24 respectively. Ann's age fits the bill but William's implies he was born in 1725, which falls a while short of William (1719) and William (1722).

Joseph Gaskin was born on 24 May 1749 in Whitby, Yorkshire, died on 25 Aug 1762 in Whitby, Yorkshire, and was buried on 27 Aug 1762 in FBG Whitby. Joseph married Elizabeth Walker.

He was a Quaker. He worked as a Carpet manufacturer, in partnership with his brother Joseph in Stricklandgate, Kendal, Cumbria. CARPET MANUFACTORY. The manufacture of carpets is entirely modern in Kendal. It was introduced in the year 1822, by Messrs. Joseph and John Atkinson. Since which time, it has, by progressive steps, become an extensive and lucrative business. In 1828, Messrs. Atkinson adopted some new machinery for weaving damask carpeting. In consequence of this improve-ment they were able to compete with the first houses in the trade ; but the spirit of rivalry was not long in opposing their progress. An action was instituted in Chancery, at the suit of Messrs. Clark and Sons, of Market Harborough, carpet manufacturers, for the alleged infringement of a patent which that house had taken out. It appeared on the trial, that a loom had been introduced from France about six years before. The one adopted by Messrs. Clark was shown to be a modifi-cation of this French loom. Messrs. Atkinson's was proved to be a still more improved modification of the French apparatus. The court therefore decided for the Kendal firm. We have been thus particular respecting this proceeding, because the success of the carpet trade in Kendal seemed to depend upon it. Various descriptions of carpets are made here : Brussels, Kidderminster, Venetian, and others. Most of these are for home use, and sold chiefly in London. Some are exported, generally from Liverpool to America, Canada, &c. Since the death of the Messrs. Atkinson, the business has been successfully and still more extensively prosecuted by Messrs. Whitwell and Co., who have, in their time, adapted steam power to the production of carpets, and superadded many mechanical and artistic improvements.

The Annals of Kendal: Being a Historical and Descriptive Account of Kendal and the Neighbourhood. Cornelius Nicholson (1861). Titus Wilson, Kendal He worked as a Carpet manufacturer, Atkinson and Whitwell in Kendal, Cumbria. John Atkinson was a partner with John Whitwell, up until the time that John Atkinson withdrew on the 1st January 1838. John Whitwell (1811-1880), was to trade under his own name as John Whitwell & Co.. How long the partnership had existed is not yet known.

He worked as a Midshipman, Mate and Master of ships engaged in the Foreign Trade. He worked as a Commander of the ship "Katherine Stewart Forbes". The ship was built for the Chapman family of Whitby, Yorkshire, and Ingram commanded her on her travels to the East Indies. Later, she saw service in both New Zealand and Australia but at a later stage than Ingram's command.

The Asiatic Journal, 1818, Volume 6, reported that on the 31st of October, "..was launched at Pitcher's Yard, Northfleet, a beautiful ship built for Messrs. Chapman, expressly for the East-India trade. At a quarter before two, the lady of Chas. Forbes Esq., MP and family went on the platform and the ship was then christened by the daughter of that gentleman, by the name of the "Katherine Stewart Forbes", and soon after, the ship glided off the stocks into her natural element, in a very fine style., to the admiration of all the spectators."

It is worth the mentioning, that at a later stage in her sea-going career, the same ship carried Charlotte Emily Watson (1837-1905) to Australia, and who arrived there on the 21st March 1839 to join, (who was to be), her future husband John Sanderson Lloyd (1831-1914), who had emigrated in 1853 on board the Harriet Humble. Both were Quakers, and were related by marriage to the Chapman family. One of their sons was Sir Howard Watson Lloyd, later among other things, a Director and Chairman of the Bank of Adelaide. His wife Mary, was the grand-daughter of Sir Henry Ayers, 8th Premier of South Australia, and for whom Ayers Rock was named.

Charles Forbes, later Sir Charles Forbes 1st Bt., was an India Merchant who spent a reasonable part of his life in that country, before returning to England, where he was Member of Parliament for Beverley (1812-1818) and Malmesbury (1818-1832). A man of great social conscience, he sought hard to uphold the welfare and needs of the poor, weak and persecuted. His continued interest in the welfare of the people of India, brought him into contact with Joseph Pease (1772-1846), a founder of the Peace Society, active anti-slavery campaigner with Thomas Clarkson, which is referred to in John Hyslop Bell's, British Folks & British India Fifty Years Ago; Joseph Pease and his Contemporaries (Manchester: John Heywood, 1891). The ship was built for the Chapman family of Whitby, Yorkshire, and Ingram commanded her on her travels to the East Indies. Later, she saw service in both New Zealand and Australia but at a later stage than Ingram's command.

The Asiatic Journal, 1818, Volume 6, reported that on the 31st of October, ".was launched at Pitcher's Yard, Northfleet, a beautiful ship built for Messrs. Chapman, expressly for the East-India trade. At a quarter before two, the lady of Chas. Forbes Esq., MP and family went on the platform and the ship was then christened by the daughter of that gentleman, by the name of the "Katherine Stewart Forbes", and soon after, the ship glided off the stocks into her natural element, in a very fine style., to the admiration of all the spectators."

It is worth the mentioning, that at a later stage in her sea-going career, the same ship carried Charlotte Emily Watson (1837-1905) to Australia, and who arrived there on the 21st March 1839 to join, (who was to be), her future husband John Sanderson Lloyd (1831-1914), who had emigrated in 1853 on board the Harriet Humble. Both were Quakers, and were related by marriage to the Chapman family. One of their sons was Sir Howard Watson Lloyd, later among other things, a Director and Chairman of the Bank of Adelaide. His wife Mary, was the grand-daughter of Sir Henry Ayers, 8th Premier of South Australia, and for whom Ayers Rock was named.

A man of great social conscience, he sought hard to uphold the welfare and needs of the poor, weak and persecuted. His continued interest in the welfare of the people of India, brought him into contact with Joseph Pease (1772-1846), a founder of the Peace Society, active anti-slavery campaigner with Thomas Clarkson, which is referred to in John Hyslop Bell's, British Folks & British India Fifty Years Ago; Joseph Pease and his Contemporaries (Manchester: John Heywood, 1891). Basic notes:

He lived at Combe House, Clifton, Bristol, Gloucestershire. This is sometimes given as Combe House, Somerset..... which appears to be incorrect. Miscellaneous: Some words of explanation. George Hillhouse married twice. Firstly, he married Mary Walker Chapman in 1823 and secondly, to Agatha Barclay in 1827. He appears to have had at least one daughter, Mary Rebecca, by his first marriage to Mary Walker Chapman. At the time that Mary Rebecca married George Cappelan Sawyer in 1842, the marriage notices described her as being the "...eldest daughter of George Hillhouse of Combe House...". Not "elder daughter" or "only daughter", but eldest.

Arthur Charles Fox-Davies notes in his Armorial Families, the marriage in 1850, of Anna Chapman Hillhouse, daughter of George Hillhouse of Combe House, Clifton, to John de Courcy Hamilton. She must be a younger daughter, born between 1825 and 1827. That still leaves room for a further child and the prospect that perhaps Mary Walker Chapman died from complications in childbirth.

When Mary Walker Chapman's death occurred is as yet unknown, though it must have been prior to 1827.

FAMED PIANO ARTIST DIES

Hollywood, June 20th: Mrs. Laura Lorimer Hay-Chapman, famous concert pianist once known as "the most beautiful woman in England", died in a hospital here of injuries suffered when she was struck by an automobile. She was 80.

Police reported that the aged musician was knocked down at a street intersection near her home yesterday.

Mrs. Hay-Chapman was a member of a titled Scottish family and was the widow of the late Richard Henry Hay-Chapman, New York Socialite and editor of the Graphic.

In the 1890's when she was at the peak of her career, Mrs. Hay-Chapman's beauty gave her fame abroad comparable to that of Lily Langtry, who reigned as the "Jersey Lilly" in the United States.

Despite her age, the pianist was active in music and war relief until her death. Only last Sunday, she assembled her sons, daughters and grandchildren in her home and played for them an extended concert including Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody and other works of difficult execution. Recently she knitted 14 sweaters for British overseas bundles.

Charles was the partner of Dr. Theresa Wade BVMS (Hons.) MRCVS, daughter of Trevor James Wade and Mary Hasney, from 2004 to 2015.

Theresa was born on 26 Mar 1986 in Southern General Hospital, Glasgow, Renfrewshire, Scotland, died on 28 Oct 2015 in Craignure, Isle of Mull, Argyll, Scotland, and was buried on 12 Nov 2015 in Suidhe Cemetery, Bunessan, Isle of Mull, Argyll, Scotland. The cause of her death was in a road traffic accident.

Basic notes:

She was awarded with BVMS(Hons.) MRCVS in Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, University of Glasgow. She worked as a Veterinary Surgeon to the Isles of Mull and Iona in 2009 in Isle of Mull, Argyll, Scotland. Theresa gained her first experience as a fully qualified vet, upon her home ground, under the guidance of Mr. James Wilson, the owner of the island practice. She worked as a Veterinary Surgeon from 2009 to 2013 in Isle of Mull, Argyll, Scotland. Veterinary surgeon in the practice of the late Mr. Chris Evans of Fort William. She worked as a Veterinary Surgeon from 2013 to 2015 in Isle of Mull, Argyll, Scotland. Theresa, eldest daughter of Trevor and Mary Wade, of Oban and eldest sister to both Rosie and Louise.

She was raised in Bunessan, on the Isle of Mull, where her parents then lived, and from attending the local primary school, she later moved to Oban High School, where she excelled in her studies, being accorded in her final year, the Dux prize for academic achievement. She was accepted by the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, to study at the University of Glasgow, where she qualified as BVMS (Bachelor of Veterinary Medicine and Surgery) with Honours and became MRCVS. She was invited to join the veterinary practice of the late Mr Chris Evans of Fort William, where she gained over several short years, the experience of a young mixed-practice vet. In 2013, she was asked by Mr James Wilson, the veterinary surgeon on the Isle of Mull, if she might aspire to taking over his practice, upon his retirement. This, being her lifetime ambition, she agreed to do, with the proviso that she were able to spend a year beforehand in his employ, that she might learn from his own experience. In July 2014, she bought the practice, delighted that her life's ambition was finally realised. Never to my knowledge, was one person so very happy.

Tragically, she lost her life in a road traffic accident on the 28th October 2015, at 8-17pm, returning to her home in Pennyghael, when her Citroen Berlingo van, was struck by a Maserati sports car being driven in the opposite direction. The other driver was subsequently arrested and charged with failing to provide a specimen of breath and Causing Death by Dangerous Driving. These facts are in the public domain; hereafter, the law must take its course.

This is my small testament to that single star of mine that burned so brightly for more than ten years of my life. So indulge me stranger please, for the sake of one who was and will remain, my truly beloved.

A book was published in December 2015, by some kind people on the Isle of Mull, which showed photographs of many of the animals that she treated, along with a brief commentary by their owners. It is available for those who would wish to have a copy, at:-
